  presented by the Indiana Chamber
  Cannon IV, Inc., was selected as 2006 Indiana Chamber Small Business of the Year. The award, provided for the positive impact small businesses have on the state's economy was presented at the Indiana Chamber's annual Small Business Day at the Statehouse on Tuesday, February 7, 2006.

- 2004 INDIANA BUSINESS ETHICS AWARD (IBEA)
  The awards, sponsored annually by the Indianapolis Chapter of the Society of Financial Service Professionals (SFSP, honors Hoosier companies that exemplify sound business practices and a commitment to ethics. Cannon IV was the IBEA winner in the small company category for those companies with fewer than 250 employees. The award is given to companies that demonstrate high standards of ethical behavior in their everyday business conduct and in response to specific crises.

- 2003 INNOVATIVE BUSINESS AWARD presented by Inside Indiana Business
  This award recognizes unique innovations in Indiana public and private companies that have made, and continue to make, a significant impact on the economic climate within the state. Cannon IV was recognized for its partnership with Noble of Indiana, a not-for-profit organization serving more than 2,500 individuals with developmental disabilities and the Occupational Development Center (ODC) in Bloomington, IL. The venture offers numerous benefits for all parties involved. Noble and ODC clients who work on the recycling program benefit from the full-time employment. The project also reinforces Cannon IV's commitment to recycling and the environment. To date, the recycling efforts have kept for than 2 ½ million pounds of waste out of landfills nationwide.

- 2003 SPIRIT OF SERVICE AWARD presented by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis
  Presented annually to five individuals and one corporation, the Spirit of Service Award recognizes the efforts of those who give back to the community. Cannon IV was recognized for its printer cartridge recycling program which utilizes the individuals from Noble of Indiana." One of the highest acts of Christian stewardship is serving people who are less fortunate or in crisis," said Archdiocese of Indianapolis Communications Director Susan Borcherts. "While those who help are not seeking recognition for themselves, it is appropriate to honor the men and women who have generously given of themselves, for the benefits of others, with the Spirit of Service Award. "Cannon IV has always encouraged employees to value a person's individuality, trust and spirit. Cannon IV's partnership with Noble has further strengthened this mission.

- 2002 NOBLE OF INDIANA NOBLE WINGS AWARD
